Capri Everitt

Singer, Songwriter
& Global Youth Ambassador

What made you decide on Singing as a career or what interested you in it?

My parents put me in singing lessons when I was 5 years old and I have loved it ever since. The main things that has drawn me into pursuing this as a career is the feeling you get when performing or recording your own music.

How did you discover this career/business/ field?

I have always been around music and even knew all of Shania Twain's songs by the age of 3.

What age were you when you knew you wanted to do this?

I have been drawn to this field ever since I started 10 years ago.

What or who do you respect or follow as a teacher or mentor to help you when you need advice?

My Mom is also my manager and without her, I would never have a chance in this business. She works tirelessly to help me to pursue this by finding opportunities for me, as well as supporting me.

What 3 success tips can you give someone that is trying to be successful in your field/business/career?

One thing that helps me to achieve everything I want is goal setting. I find that setting monthly and yearly goals helps me stay on track. I would also say that in the entertainment business it is very important to be outgoing and unique. You also have to continually think up new ideas for content for your followers and fans.

How much do you practice/prepare during the day or week to keep you good at what you do and how do you do it?

I spend most of my days creating content and practicing my music.

What is the hardest/toughest part of what you do in your career and why?

The hardest thing about what I do would probably be the sacrifices I have to make in order to make it happen. I need an insane amount of time to get everything done and that means sometimes I have to miss out on some normal parts of being a teenager. At the same time, I would never trade those sacrifices for a normal teenage life.

What 3 important things you believe you need to succeed in this career/field or in life?

I would say the most important thing is perseverance. Many things will not work and you need determination to keep going.

Are you more of an introvert (likes to be alone) or an extrovert (outgoing) and why?

I am definitely an extrovert because I love being around people and doing new things.

If you had the opportunity to be anyone in the world, who would that be and why?

I would meet Ariana Grande or Shawn Mendes because they both inspire me in terms of music and determination.

What things do you do to feel relaxed and release stress?

I love to run and to workout. I also really enjoy taking hip hop dance classes.

What things do you believe you need to be successful? (i.e. talent, skill, hard work, motivation) and can these things be learned or are you born with them?

I think that you need training and some basic talent, however, the most important thing to have in order to succeed is a very strong work ethic and continual motivation to keep going, even when things are not working out the way you want them to.

How do you handle or view mistakes, failures or challenges when they come up?

I just move on and try to do even better next time!

What are you grateful for and that you appreciate everyday in your life? I am so grateful for my family and friends, as well as all of the opportunities I have living in an amazing place like Canada.

What motivates you to get up in the morning?

Knowing that I get to create music and content for my incredible fans!

What is your career or life goals in 3 to 5 years from now?

I would love to be doing global tours with big names!

If you could be an opening act to any performer, who would you like to perform with and why?

I would love to be the opening act for Ariana Grande one day.
